

BERLIN ART WEEK 11—15 SEP 2024

PRESS RELEASE
Berlin, 17 JUL 2024

Berlin Art Week 2024: These are the locations of this year's festival week from 11-15 SEP

This fall, when the capital transforms into one of the largest festivals for contemporary art, Berlin Art Week finally returns. From 11—15 SEP 2024, the 13th edition of Berlin Art Week will present at more than 100 locations what the city's contemporary art scene has to offer. Together with renowned museums and art institutions, private collections, project spaces and numerous galleries, the festival week invites you to discover an extraordinary programme.

This year, a large number of national and international artists will represent Berlin's diverse art scene. From Mariechen Danz at the Berlinische Galerie to Samuel Fosso at the Kindl-Zentrum für zeitgenössische Kunst, Sigmar Polke at Schinkel Pavillon or Candida Höfer at the Akademie der Künste to Gisèle Vienne at Haus am Waldsee, Georg Kolbe Museum and Sophiensaele, there are exciting positions for all visitors to discover.

In addition to impressive solo shows, fascinating group exhibitions will also open during the festival week. C/O Berlin and the Ostkreuz photo agency, for example, will take a look at Berlin in the 1990s, while the artist's collective Para at the nGbK will examine the colonial history of houseplants. Meanwhile, exclusive performance specials will take visitors to the HAU Hebbel am Ufer, the Neue Nationalgalerie and the Hamburger Bahnhof-Nationalgalerie der Gegenwart. Selected private collections will also provide unique insights into their collections. Further, the art market will be in full swing during Berlin Art Week. The Positions Berlin Art Fair opens with 110 international galleries and a focus on South Korea, while more than fifty of Berlin's most important galleries from Gallery Weekend Berlin invite night owls to a Gallery Night. Up-and-coming gallery owners will be awarded with the VBKI's Gallery Award.

Visitors may also look forward to the partners of this year's ›BAW Featured‹ section. For the second time, Berlin projects had the chance to apply to be part of the festival programme. Twelve special projects and eight project spaces and initiatives were selected from over 150 submissions to be presented as part of Berlin Art Week 2024. The four-member Selection Committee consisted of Emma Enderby (Director of KW Institute for Contemporary Art), Nele Heinevetter (Founder of Tropez), Christian Kaspar Schwarm (Board Member Curatories at Freunde der Nationalgalerie) and Mona Stehle (Artistic Director of Berlin Art Week). From representatives of the independent art scene in collectively used spaces to museums, the 20 selected partners will further enrich Berlin Art Week 2024. There are some unusual and new places to discover: visitors of Spoiler at Cank will enter an abandoned department store, celebrate the reopening of ZK/U-Zentrum für Kunst und Urbanistik and help reactivate the Spree with Fluss Bad Berlin.

As a central meeting point for all visitors, the festival centre ›BAW Garten‹ invites you to discover the entire Berlin Art Week programme open air and free of charge. For five days, art enthusiasts and those simply curious about art can come together to get in the mood for the festival with performances, workshops, drinks and snacks. The location of this year's BAW Garten will be announced at the end of this month.

You can now find detailed information about all participating partners on the Berlin Art Week website. The official programme of Berlin Art Week 2024 will be published in early August. ## STATEMENT SELECTION COMMITTEE ›BAW FEATURED‹

»Taking place once a year, Berlin Art Week reflects the diversity of the city's art landscape and celebrates the capital's creativity. The special projects and project spaces we selected as part of the ›BAW Featured‹ section use the city's unique resources—both spatially and in terms of content—in a convincing way.

From 152 applications, we selected 20 outstanding projects for the 13th edition of the festival week, which with their respective contributions open up new perspectives for visitors. There are innovative artistic positions, unusual places and unexpected discourses to discover—all spread across the entire city.

We are very pleased to integrate these spaces into the Berlin Art Week who, alongside the established exhibition venues, galleries, and private collections, enrich and widen the current art discourse and spark curiosity. This year, children, swimmers, and explorers in particular can come and enjoy the chosen projects for Berlin Art Week.«
